VAUGHN M JARMON

NOV 2, 1952 - AUG 10, 2016

E arth Has No Sorrow That Heaven Can Not Heal

Life Story

Vaughn M. Jarmon departed this life on Wednesday, August 10, 2016 at Christiana Hospital in Newark, DE.

Vaughn was born November 2, 1952 in Salisbury, MD. to the late Monroe and Mary France Jarmon.

Vaughn was educated at Milton School #196, William C. Jason High School and Milton High School. After schooling Vaughn enlisted into the National Guards.

Vaughn's first job was with King Cole Cannery. He was then employed with several poultry companies in his early life. Later Vaughn worked as a truck driver for more than 20 years for at least three concrete companies. In Vaughn's most recent years, he worked at The Flower Place in New Castle, DE and enjoyed making a side hustle cutting grass.

Vaughn enjoyed being around people, family and friends. His favorite was Christmas morning breakfast at his niece's home. He shared life experiences and advice with the young men he came in contact with. He could make you laugh with his jokes, stories and expressions. Vaughn's daily highlights were taking Clinton and Carmelo to the store and wiping down his car.

He was preceded in death by a brother, Virgil M. Clark.
