I will always treasure the memories of Mike in his black jacket telling one of his great stories & his famous middle finger gesture that showed his humor...an old fashioned sometimes stubborn man that always welcomed me as family...I'm thankful I was able to spent time with him this summer. My thoughts & Prayers are with you today & always Nana...Mike will always be in our hearts.

It was such a great day when Michael Zonko joined our Millsboro Class of '64. I no longer had to sit in the last seat. He always had something funny to say along with a kind word. We will all miss him. He and his family have my prayers. Dee Dee "Wilson"
