So sad to hear of Uncle Dewitt's passing. My young memories of going to work with R&D Building contractors' (on Saturdays) and eventually full time for a short time after high school, were always filled with fun stories and kidding around at the expense of the "youngster". His passing is a sad event - the last of a generation that did great things by teaching a hard work ethic, but also providing laughter and good times. Love and condolences to all. (Rusty)
