Dave.....I am heartbroken to hear of your mother's passing. I know she meant a lot to you and you loved her dearly. It's not easy to lose you mom, at any age. I hope God will surround you with comfort and peace in knowing that she has begun her new journey. We will be praying for you and your family members during this difficult time.

My "Aunt Helen" ...She was a hoot. I have very fond memories of her and will remember her only as a fun loving sister to my Mother . Memories of her will always make me smile Memories as far back as Sierer family reunions back at the "Glen" and Christmases at Aunt Betty's . She and her three sisters known as "Siererie Girls" are all together now and they are happy and pain free and clear of mind smiling down on us just as she is pictured right here in her obituary . This is a great picture of her to remember her constant sense of humor and smile whenever we were around her . Thank you to my cousins for sharing this picture as a lasting memory of a favorite aunt .
