Barbara J. Lunn lit a candle in honor of Deborah.

I'm shocked and saddened by Aunt Debbie's passing. I have fond/ funny memories of her. As a child/adolescent, I thought she was so cool, rebellious and in-your-face. Even as an adult, I liked her "take-no-prisoners" approach to things, especially to anyone who thought they were going to take advantage of her. THAT was a no-go! Woe to that person! I appreciate that she lived her life in a way that worked best for her; she didn't strike me as someone who conforms just to please others. You are loved. You'll be missed. Rest in peace, Aunt Debbie.
