To the entire Wright family, so very sorry to hear of this loss. It has been many, many years since I've seen any of you but I will always remember this entire family and the kindness they always showed me when I was a child & teenager living in Pine Hill. Even as a child I always felt so much respect for this family because they seemed so real and genuine to me. I pray for the comfort and healing of your hearts and you will be in my thoughts as well. God bless you all.
