Mr. Asher Lee Rogers, Jr. of Selbyville, DE passed away peacefully with his family by his side on Monday, April 8, 2019. He was 72 years old.

Asher was born in Milford, DE to the late Asher Lee Rogers Sr. and Betty Louise Davis Rogers.

He retired from White Horse Park in Berlin, where he worked as a Maintenance Technician. He was a U.S. Army Veteran who served our country during the Vietnam Era. Asher could do just about anything. He enjoyed fishing, crabbing, gardening and cutting his grass. He was a family man and a good provider. Asher loved his grandsons and enjoyed spending time with them. Although he could be feisty at times he was still loved dearly and will be greatly missed.

He is survived by his devoted wife of 47 years, Bonnie Kaye Toomey Rogers; three children, Belinda Rodarmel of Georgetown, DE; Dale Toomey and his wife Penny of Laurel and Asher Lee Rogers, III of Selbyville, DE; two sisters, Rita Tindall and Leslie Sturdevant as well as two brothers Gary Tindall and James Tindall. He also leaves behind four grandsons, one great grandchild, extended family and friends. Also we cannot forget to mention his beloved canine friend "Chaser".
