In Loving memory of our son Shawn Frank Mikulcik

While growing up at home, Shawn dedicated his life to being the best son and big brother that anyone could ask for. He always had his family first in his heart, he was a true mommas' boy.

Shawn's hobbies were working on his truck with 35 inch tires and other

Shawn's smile will forever be etched in my mind. The rosebush he gave me at the end of second grade still blooms each year in my yard. Each time I see those blooms I think of Shawn. Fly with Jesus dear one!
