Obituary of Mr. Curtis E. Hall

Curtis E. Hall of Georgetown, DE passed away on Saturday, May 2, 2020 in the care of his family and Delaware Hospice. He was 42 years old.

Curtis was born on March 15, 1978 in Milford, DE to the late James Lewis Hall and Judy Holston Hall who survives him.

In addition to his mother, he is survived by his beloved wife and companion of 22 years Heather Hall of Georgetown, DE, two daughters, McKenzie Hall and Kylee Hall both of Georgetown, DE and one brother Kevin Hall and his wife Janice of Bridgeville, DE. He also leaves behind extended family members and friends.

He was the owner of Hall's Fencing. He enjoyed riding motorcycles, hunting deer and fishing. Curtis was down to earth, easy going and friendly. He was devoted to his wife and daughters. He will be missed by all who knew him.

Services will be private. Letters of condolence may be emailed via www.watsonfh.com

Curt and I grew up together. As we got older, we didn't talk as much, but when we did we did talk, it was like no time was missed. All the memories we made, good times and lots of laughs. Fly high buddy, say "hi" to my parents. They always liked you.
