To Anthony, Natosha, Trantino, and Josh, Saying goodbye is never easy. When someone we love becomes a memory, that memory becomes a treasure.

Although we will miss her dearly, we celebrate Elaine's life through loving memories of all the good times we shared just being part of the same family.

Each life touches this world in a way no other can. And, there will ALWAYS be a very special place in our hearts for your mom. May she rest in peace and may you be comforted by the knowledge that we loved her, too. Your Cousins, Adrienne, Karen, Ronald, Cheryl, Ricky, and the rest of our Family.

To Anthony, Natosha, Trantino, and Josh, Your cousins, Carole, Regina, Lisa and Millicent celebrate the life of Elaine as we each remember the different times we shared with your Mother throughout the years. One common theme from all our interactions is that she had a big caring heart and deep quiet strength that remained TRUE throughout her lifetime. She would always ask, "How is your Mom or how is Baby Charles?" And she also checked bad behavior on the spot (Loretta and Millicent)! We all have special memories that will not be forgotten. Remember we are only a hone call away.

Anthony, Tarantino, Natosha and Joshl will deeply miss Elaine. She and mom had a special friendship that was fun to watch. Elaine valued that friendship as mom did. I will remember Elaine for her hospitality. If I went to her house she would greet me at the door with her smile....invite me in saying " come in sit down, have a Pepsi and I've baked a cake." Once she got you settled the conversation was on from one topic to another. By the time I was ready to go I was well fed and had a new fresh perspective on things. I will remember Elaine for her straightforwardness and kind generous heart. She valued family and friendship. I will miss you Elaine. May you RIP!
