Ronnie Maurice Jackson

NOV 25, 1956 - SEP 9, 2021

Ronnie Maurice Jackson was born on November 25, 1956, to the late Raymond Lee and Mary Liza Jackson in Roxanna, DE. Ronnie departed this life on Thursday, September 9, 2021, at Beebe Medical Center in Lewes, DE. He was 64 years old.

Ronnie was educated in the Indian River School District and attended trade school for Auto Body Fender, carpentry, and woodwork. He was employed in the Poultry Industry for over 47 years working at Townsends Poultry and then Mountaire Farms until his health declined. He was also previously employed at Vlastic Foods and Georgia House.

He loved working with his hands, making personalized clocks and plaques, and working on his cars (especially his unique yellow car, "Lemon Twist," as he called it). The first plaque that he made could be seen hanging at the Pentecostal Church of God in Millsboro, DE saying, "Prayer Changes Things." Ronnie had a great personality, loved to joke around and was an all-around nice man. He was well liked by the younger generation and affectionately called "Uncle Ronnie" by not only his nieces and nephews but also their friends.

Ronnie loved music and playing the guitar. He especially enjoyed gospel music and the blues. His favorite gospel songs were: "There's a Leak in this Old Building," "My Soul has been Anchored," "Walk around Heaven," "The Gates Swing Open," and "Silent Night" by The Temptations which he enjoyed particularly during Christmas time. Ronnie was a member and guitarist at the Pentecostal Church of God in Millsboro, DE under the leadership of Bishop Marion L. Hendricks.

Jeanette Conquest-Davis lit a candle in honor of Ronnie.

To the family of Ronnie M. Jackson, As the song says, it's hard to say good-bye to yesterday, but not only yesterdays are hard, but all good-byes are hard. Even though Ronnie has gone on to Glory, we that are in Christ know that it is not the end. For we shall meet again one day soon. May the memories that we all hold dear to our hearts, be a comfort to each of us. And may your passing be an opportunity to bring us together as a family and not tear us all apart, and be a reminder to each of us that life is very short. As the poet wrote, "For we know that we have but one life, and this too shall pass. But it's only what's done for Christ that shall last. May we all keep this in mind and be ready. Sorrowfully submitted, Jenny
