Obituary of James Norman Leopard

Retired D.C. Metropolitan Police Officer

James Norman Leopard, 78, of Seaford passed away in the care of Tidal Health, Nanticoke on February 20, 2022. He was born on September 26, 1943 in North Little Rock, Arkansas to the late Frank Mac Adams and Vivian Heilman Adams. He completed his education in the US Air Force where he served for four years, and then became a police officer in Washington, D.C., retiring after many years of service. He went on to become a supervisor and Lieutenant in the security division of the National Geographic Society. He married Janice Howell, and together they raised two children during those years. He loved reading, and admired trains, collecting railroad memorabilia. Family was all important to him, actually everything to him.

His biggest hobby was motorcycling, and he owned several over the years, graduating to a Can Am. He earned the nickname "No Cash" travelling to places that would not take credit cards, and had to get help from his motorcycle buddies, much to the humor of all of them.

He is survived by his wife, Janice and two children: Michelle Renee, of Crofton, MD and Frank Mac Adams, of Welcome, MD. He has one sister: Jeanne Morgan, of Richmond, VA; and a brother: William Mac Leonard, of Sherwood, Arkansas. There are two grandchildren: Mark Andrew Buscher and Sean Michael Buscher. In addition, he has five great-grandchildren with a sixth "on the way."

I met Jim in 2010 and he led me on many interesting rides, and they always stopped for ice cream in the afternoon. He was a very interesting man, a great story teller and truly enjoyed life. I know his family will miss him tremendously as will his extended family of motor cycle riders. I pray God will wrap his loving arms around his family and comfort them through this time of loss. Focus on all of the good memories and treasure him for ever.
