I have known Tracey since elementary school. I pray for her family to find healing in the memories and love she shared with everyone. She was a beautiful woman with an infectious smile. I will treasure the years we shared as classmates and feel honored to have known her. I am also praying for her son to find the strength to move forward knowing she would want him to live his life through the love of family and hold on to the best memories of having such a caring mother. I do not believe she would want him to suffer in any way. * Rest In Peace *
