Peter Langford Terry

JUN 2, 2022

Peter Langford Terry, 82, of Millsboro, DE, passed away peacefully on June 2 in the care of Coastal Hospice in Salisbury MD.

He was born in NYC and grew up in Penn Yan, NY. He received a degree in Mechanical Engineering from Clarkson University. In his professional career, he worked for various firms: Allis Chalmers, Monsanto, Engelhardt, H-Power, as well as consulting on many engineering projects. Developing fuel cells took him from NJ to Japan. He also held many patents, some involving space exploration. He enjoyed many hobbies including: car racing his mini cooper and MGTD, small boat sailing, restoring antique clocks, and traveling. He was a founding member of the Lewes British Car Club.

Peter was predeceased by two wives: Trina Scott Terry, wife of 47 years, and Arlene Ware Terry, wife of 10 years.

He is survived by his Daughter: Catherine Droogan and her Husband, Jay Droogan, He also leaves behind his Grandchildren: Jack, Cate and Sara Droogan, as well as his Sister Nancy Levine and his Sister in-law Ellen Scott.

At his request, no service will be held.

In Lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to the Brandywine Valley SPCA, 22918 Dupont Blvd, Georgetown DE 19947.

Arrangements provided by Watson Funeral Home, Millsboro, DE.
