Obituary of Brian Keith Binder, Jr.

Brian Keith Binder, Jr., of Harbeson, DE passed away unexpectedly on September 8, 2022, while visiting his mother in Millsboro. He was 33 years old. He was the son of the late Brian K. Binder, Sr. and Crystal Lee Bonowitz Binder. Brian was married to Mellanie Poleth Santamaria Rosales, and together he leaves behind their son: Keith Abraham Binder, aged 4 also Amory Greer, mother of his other son Braedyn Andrew Binder, aged 5. Brian is also survived by three sisters: Shea Noonan, of Greenbackville, VA; Kristyn Vadsaz and Taylor Vadsaz both of Lewisburg, PA and a brother: Kyle Binder, of Millsboro, DE. Also surviving are his best friends: Bam Meyers; JJ. Whaley; and Jeffrey Pruitt.

Brian worked as a Sanitation Manager for Mountaire in Selbyville, DE. He was a fun loving, funny and quick-witted man, who was loving and caring. He was especially devoted to his wife and children. He paid great attention to their needs, and whatever they wanted, he tried his best to provide. Brian loved his music, football, especially his long-time team of the Philadelphia Eagles.

A time of viewing and visitation will be held on Saturday, September 17, 2022, from 5 PM till 7 PM at the Watson Funeral Home, 211 S. Washington St. Millsboro, DE. Friends are invited to come and support Brian's wife and family during this difficult time.

Dad lit a candle in honor of Brian.

My favorite memories of Brian are his hysterical sense of humor and his contagious laugh. I loved his Forrest Gump impersonation and the way he would keep trying to scare Shea & Kyle. I will forever miss you.
