I remember Carolyn's big smile whenever we talked about her mom, she cared for her as any loving daughter would. Carolyn was always giving her whole heart in whatever she did. I enjoyed sharing the wonderful promise found in God's words one is Rev21:3_5. Sincerely and with sympathy from Debbie Purnell

I remember Carolyn with fondness from Indian River High School. She was a lovely young woman, and I'm sure, grew to be a lovely woman, mother, and wife. May Tyrone (what a respectful, polite student as well) and his children be sustained through Christ's love and remembrances of your life with Carolyn.
