I was sadden to read of Jeff's passing and so sorry for your loss. Jeff, Pam, CR, Ronnie & Mark were my siblings and mine best friends growing up. We would either be over Jeff & Pam's house or they were at ours. In the summer we would spend the night in what Jeff called "The Sugar Shack" out behind his house. We had many, many great adventures as kids and I cherish the memories. My deepest sympathy to all his loved ones. Donna Pauley Melson

Dear Robin and Megan, please accept my deepest condolences, on the loss of Jeff. He will remain in my memory, as a man of amazing technical knowledge and skill, who was always humble, kind, and motivated to help. Jeff always had a great story to share, and definitely enjoyed expressing his very deep love for family. May you be comforted by sweet memories, as you begin to grieve and heal. My love to you, Katie
