Gary Steven Jackson of Millsboro, DE, was born in Philadelphia, PA on October 24, 1959, and passed away on June 2, 2025.

He was the son of Warren Gary Jackson “Tobby” and the late Carol Ann Rose Jackson. Gary was one of four children. Deborah Ann Jackson, Warren Layton Jackson, “Toby” and Charles Daniel Jackson “Danny”.

Gary had two children whom he cherished. His son Brent Steven Jackson (Kristen), of Georgetown, DE, and daughter Michelle Jackson Brice of Winterville, NC as well as and three grandchildren who he loved spending time with Emma Jackson, Myles and McKenzie Brice.

Gary married Karey Y. Harmon May 16, 1992. They were married 33 years and together 7 years before totaling 40 years... a lifetime spent together. He worked at Angola Estates, Nanticoke Manor and loved his job at Tidewater Utilities which he retired in 2020.

He graduated from Sussex Central High School in 1977. Gary was a member of the Nanticoke Indian Association. He enjoyed baseball, playing cards, bowling, and pool leagues with family and friends.

Gary loved and adored his pop-pop Warren, often staying with his grandparents. He was very close to his pop-pop and that special bond left him with many precious memories of their relationship. Gary’s second love was his love for the game of baseball and all his baseball buddies.
