Obituary for Mary Frances Luzier

Mary Frances Luzier, a devoted mother, grandmother, and friend, passed away peacefully in Millsboro, Delaware, on August 4, 2025. She was 93.

Born on June 3, 1932, to loving parents Harvey and Rebecca Coffin, Mary was a proud lifelong resident of Sussex County. She graduated from Millsboro High School in 1950 and went on to work as a bank teller, where her kindness and warm spirit left a lasting impression on everyone she met.

In 1957, Mary met her Prince Charming, Walter Stokes, a WWII veteran and oil tanker chief engineer. They married in 1959 and shared a loving union until his passing in 1985. In 1987, she found love again with her second Prince Charming, Roy Luzier, a WWII veteran and upholstery shop owner, and they were married in 1988. Their 16 years together were filled with joy until Roy's passing in 2004.

A woman of deep faith, Mary was an active member of Frankford Presbyterian Church, where she found joy in volunteering at the church's thrift store and connecting with the community. She was known for her generosity, kindness, and unwavering belief in the goodness of others.

Mary loved birdwatching, doing puzzles, playing Scrabble and Yahtzee, and, above all, spending time with her family. Her gentle spirit and loving heart made her unforgettable to everyone who met her.
