Stephen G. Dressman

NOV 4, 1950 - NOV 27, 2025

We announce the passing of our dear brother, Stephen G. Dressman, 75, of Ocean Pines, Maryland, who died peacefully on Thanksgiving Day, November 27, 2025, in Millsboro, Delaware.

Steve was the beloved son of the late Mary and Al Dressman. He grew up in Pittsburgh and graduated from the University of Pittsburgh. He established a distinguished career in Maryland, retiring as a Major from the Maryland Correctional system. Upon retirement, Steve moved to Ocean City, Maryland, where he invested in real estate and worked part-time at a local Food Lion.

A dedicated son, Steve ensured his elderly mother could escape the cold northern winters, taking her on thirteen memorable trips to Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. He had a kind heart, helping others discreetly when they faced hard times, and he sponsored children through various Catholic missions. He lived his faith quietly and was comforted by prayer and the Mass on EWTN when he was homebound.

Steve loved family gatherings and was known for his quick wit and playful banter. He was a favorite fun uncle to many nieces and nephews in the Dressman and Vargo families, frequently opening his home for family reunions. In Steve's younger years, golf was his passion, and he spent many cherished days on the course with friends, always ready to share a joke and a laugh. Steve loved his dogs who provided endless comfort and quiet companionship through the years. It is fitting that he found rest in peace on Thanksgiving Day, a holiday he held dear.

Stephen is survived by his devoted min-pin, Maggie. He was a cherished brother to: Michael Dressman (Fran) of Houston, Texas; Christopher Dressman (Judi Pulizzano) of Baton Rouge, Louisiana; Ellen Dressman (Dennis Holten) of Inverness, California; Mary Lou Dressman-Conroy (Chris Conroy) of Bethel Park, Pennsylvania; Maureen Dressman of Lancaster, Pennsylvania; Marjorie Barnhart (Keith) of Bethel Park, Pennsylvania.

He was preceded in death by his brother, Al Dressman, Jr. and his dear friend, Stephen Vargo.

Although I never met him in person, Steve Dressman was my friend. We shared a lot of the same values and we had mutual admiration for each other's beliefs. I looked up to Steve Dressman the way a man looks up to an older brother. His words were sharp but tempered with a thoughtful and kind heart. I found the kind of strength and character in Steve that I had always looked for in my own elders and within myself. Steve's approach to life reassured me that the values I held dear and in high regard were values shared by good, God loving men of strength and honor. My love and respect goes with Steve Dressman as he crosses into God's kingdom. Losing Steve has created a void in my life and a sense of loss but I'm grateful that God brought Steve's, strength, humor, wisdom and kindness across our great nation to share a little bit of his guidance to me. Rest in peace, my friend. You are missed.
